LEGAL GUIDANCE

Established in 2008, West Hill works with clients in all stages of company growth on issues including formation and equity ownership matters, establishing and enforcing intellectual property rights, corporate finance, licensing and strategic contract drafting and negotiations, employment and human resources matters, complex IP litigation, and mergers and acquisitions.

If you decide to sell your company, we can help you navigate the process from due diligence through closing so that you can achieve the goals you set for pursuing your next opportunity.

Our attorneys have expertise developed by working for large law firms or as in-house counsel, including as chief legal officer. We use our experience to deliver sophisticated legal counsel without the overhead of traditional law firms. Solid legal advisors that work hard, solve real business problems and are pleasant to work with.

NEXT, A BIT ABOUT WHAT WE DON'T DO ...

If you are looking for a law firm that will take you to the ball game, or wine and dine you at a hot new restaurant, you are in the wrong place. We are lawyers who put your legal services budget to work with reasonable fees for the highest quality services. We like it that way; we think you will to.

Sophisticated legal services to protect your business.
